

Powerhouse Ventures Limited (PVL)

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY

Introduction

PVL (the Company) is committed to regularly communicating with its shareholders in a timely and accessible manner, and to encouraging shareholder participation at its general meetings.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy (Policy) is to set out the processes by which the Company will strive to ensure that shareholders are provided with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise their rights effectively.

Annual General Meetings

Before each Annual General Meeting (AGM), the Company will distribute to shareholders a notice of meeting that complies with all relevant requirements under the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act), the ASX Listing Rules (Listing Rules) and the Company's constitution. The Company encourages shareholders to provide email addresses so that notices of meeting and explanatory material can be sent to shareholders via email.

AGMs are an opportunity for shareholders to hear from and engage with the Board, management and the Company's external auditor. The Company and its Board encourages shareholders to actively participate at AGMs

The Company will request that the external auditor attend AGMs and be available to answer shareholder questions about the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's report.

Annual Report

The Company aims to ensure that its annual report provides shareholders with a thorough understanding of the Company's activities, performance and position for the previous financial year.

The Company's annual report will be made available electronically via its website. Shareholders can also elect to receive a printed copy of the annual report.

Announcements to the ASX

Significant developments affecting the Company may be the subject of an announcement to ASX under the Company's continuous disclosure obligations.

All ASX announcements made to the market, including annual and half-year financial results, will be placed on the Company's website as soon as practicable after release.

Investor and Analyst Briefings

Investor and analyst briefings may occur whenever the Board deems appropriate. Any presentation material will be released to ASX before such briefings take place, and where appropriate, the Company will utilise webcasting or teleconferencing technology to broadcast the briefings.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY

Methods of Communication - Distribution

Whenever possible, the Company will provide shareholders with the option to receive communications from and send communications to the Company electronically.

The Company aims to provide shareholders with comprehensive and timely access to Company documents and releases through its website. Information available on the Company's website will include:

- (i) the names, photographs and brief biographical information for each of the Company's directors and senior executives;
- (ii) the Company's constitution, board charter and the charters of each of its Board committees;
- (iii) the Company's corporate governance policies;
- (iv) copies of the Company's annual reports and financial statements;
- (v) copies of any announcements to ASX;
- (vi) the full text of notices of meetings and any accompanying documents;
- (vii) presentation materials provided at investor and analyst briefings;
- (viii) if the Company keeps them, webcasts and/or transcripts of investor and analyst briefings;
- (ix) if the Company keeps them, webcasts and/or transcripts of meetings of shareholders and copies of any documents tabled or otherwise made available at those meetings; and
- (x) a means for the shareholders to submit enquiries directly to the Company.

Share Registry

Shareholders can access information relevant to their holding, as well as update personal information via the Company share registry, Xcend Registry Services (<https://xcend.7g.com.au/>)

Shareholders should direct any enquiries relating to their holding to Xcend Registry Services via their portal.

Updating this Policy

The Board may approve updates and amendments of this Policy from time to time.
